AIG UK announces new commercial lines appointments

AIG UK today announced it is consolidating its Property, Liabilities and AIG Combined businesses into one Division under the leadership of Jason Harris as the new Regional Profit Centre Manager, Property, Liabilities and AIG Combined. Prior to this appointment Jason was responsible for AIG UK's Property account.

Commenting on the new unit, Kelly Lyles, AIG UK's Director for Commercial Lines said, "this is an innovative move for us and we are confident it will help us deliver better service to our customers, making it easier for brokers to access AIG UK's underwriting capabilities".

In addition to Jason Harris, several other appointments have been made. Allan Francis will take over as Regional Liabilities Profit Centre Manager and Ian France will become the new Regional Property Profit Centre Manager.

These individuals will report into Jason along with John Cameron who heads up the AIG Combined capability. "These well deserved internal promotions demonstrate our underwriting bench strength in the UK," said Alexander Baugh, Managing Director of AIG UK.
